We offer a selection of training opportunities to best suit your needs, such as:

ManagerLab

The ManagerLab allows participants to practise targeted scenarios developed specifically for their line of work, tackling the most common challenges of middle and senior managers, such as:

- giving feedback
- motivating and inspiring
- leading effectively a diverse team

SpeakOut

Our SpeakOut training gives you the tools to use the spoken word to deliver maximum impact. Using techniques that actors deploy to carry the expression of their voice, our trainers guide participants through exercises that will open up their voice, get them speaking authoritatively, and hence allow them to confidently get their point across in any situation.

StandUp Against Harassment

Delivered in partnership with the non-profit Touche pas à ma pote, this training enables participants to learn effective actions for how to react when witnessing sexual harassment in public spaces through practical scenarios. Participants jump into the scenarios with our actors, enabling them to gain simulated experiences that they can draw from when confront with harassment in real life.

BeInclusive

At times, we are all the odd one out in a given environment, be it at work or in our social circle. Our BeInclusive training helps teams develop interpersonal and intercultural communication and support skills to make sure the underrepresented in any given group is heard, included and uplifted.
